Forecast for Thursday 24 Jun 2021

Weather: Although it may start sunny over the Trossachs and eastern Lochaber, this will be deceptive as it will quickly cloud over from the west. Then the main theme is for a dull, cloudy day with occasional rain, heaviest and most persistent across Argyll from mid morning until mid afternoon.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 10%

Visibility: Moderate or poor, occasionally good in the east, but very poor in hill fog this ranging from extensive in the west to occasional in Great Glen and towards the Trossachs.
